RE: Case Number: 20-O-02574
Respondent: Julia Dalzell

Dear Mr. Cotton:

The State Bar's Office of Chief Trial Counsel has reviewed your complaint against Julia Dalzell to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to prosecute a possible violation of the State Bar Act and/or Rules of Professional Conduct. Please note that this letter addresses only your complaint against Ms. Dalzell. Your complaints against other attorneys will be reviewed and addressed separately.

In this complaint, you stated that Ms. Dalzell represented defendants in a civil case in which you were the plaintiff. You stated that Ms. Dalzell, while arguing that your complaint be dismissed, failed to apprise the court that the defendants – who were themselves attorneys – had filed a separate, allegedly frivolous law suit on behalf of their clients. Based on the above, you alleged that Ms. Dalzell has perjured and misled the court.

Based on our evaluation of the information provided, we are closing your complaint. In order to investigate allegations of attorney misconduct, the State Bar needs specific facts which, if proved, would establish a violation of the attorney's ethical duties. We have determined that your complaint does not present sufficient facts to support an investigation. While an attorney owes a duty of candor to the court with regards to the matters relevant to the case at hand, an attorney has no affirmative obligation to report that his attorney-client may have filed a separately, allegedly frivolous lawsuit on behalf of another.

For these reasons, the State Bar is closing this matter.

If you have new facts and circumstances that you believe may change our determination to close your complaint, you may submit a written statement with the new information to the Intake Unit for review. If you have any questions about this process, you may call Deputy Trial Counsel Bo Yang at 213-765-1338. If you leave a voice message, be sure to clearly identify the lawyer complained of, the case number assigned, and your telephone number including the area code. We should return your call within two business days.

If you are not aware of new facts or circumstances but otherwise disagree with the decision to close your complaint, you may submit a request for review by the State Bar's Complaint Review Unit, which will review your complaint and the Intake Unit's decision to close the complaint. The Complaint Review Unit may reopen your complaint if it determines that your complaint was inappropriately closed or that you presented new, significant evidence to support your complaint. To request review by the Complaint Review Unit, you must submit your request in writing, together with any new evidence you wish to be considered, post-marked within 90 days of the date of this letter, to:

The State Bar of California
Complaint Review Unit
Office of General Counsel
180 Howard Street
San Francisco, CA 94105-1617

We would appreciate if you would complete a short, anonymous survey about your experience with filing your complaint. While your responses to the survey will not change the outcome of the complaint you filed against the attorney, the State Bar will use your answers to help improve the services we provide to the public. The survey can be found at <http://bit.ly/StateBarSurvey1>.

Thank you for bringing your concerns to the attention of the State Bar.

Sincerely,

Bo Yang
Deputy Trial Counsel
